

ROBERT W. FISHER

ALBION—Robert "Bob" W. Fisher, 87, of Albion, passed away on Friday, July 23, 2010, at MaineGeneral Medical Center—Thayer Campus in Waterville. He was born in Worcester, Massachusetts, on March 3, 1923, the son of the late Willard and Eva (Killerby) Fisher.

Robert, known affectionately as "Bob" or "Grampie" by his family and friends, graduated from Boys Trade School in Massachusetts. Following his schooling, he served with the Navy as a gunner's mate during World War II. After completing his military service, Bob was employed as a pattern maker with Cross Brothers in Massachusetts.

He enjoyed working with his hands, building his own homes in Auburn, Massachusetts, and Wethersfield, Vermont. He and his wife, Dorothy, also lived in Stuart, Florida, for several years. The couple's latest residence has been on the Pearson Farm in Albion, the property of their daughter and son-in-law.

Bob was an avid outdoorsman who loved hunting, fishing, and camping. He always enjoyed traveling to Maine years before residing in Albion. Bob had a special, secret whistle he would use to communicate with his daughter while in the woods.

Besides his parents, he was predeceased by his son, Gary S. Fisher; his sister, June E. Johnson; and his brother-in-law, Charlie Johnson.

Bob will be sadly missed by his wife of 64 years, Dorothy; his daughter, Diane Pearson and Husband, Richard, of Albion; his grandchildren, Jason Pearson and wife Nikki, Joel Pearson and wife Jade, Nathan Pearson and wife Sarah, Shaina Coelo-Herron and husband Kyle, and Robert Fisher; his great-granddaughter, Ruby Sue Pearson; his brother, George Fisher and wife Priscilla of Washington state; his daughter-in-law, Debbie Fisher of Sturbridge, Massachusetts; a very special niece, Linda Westerlind and husband Frank of Worcester, Massachusetts, and their children, Amberlyn and Mickenna Westerlind and Michael and Mark Mahoney; and his special neighbors, Gerald Mason, Bill Grace, Keith Noyes and Scott Mathieu.

Donations in his name may be made to: The Maine Children's Home for Little Wanderers, ATTN: Development Office, 93 Silver St., Waterville ME 04901; or Albion Fire Department Association, 22 Main St., Albion
