

LAWRENCE S. "SULLY" GREENWOOD

FARMINGTON—Lawrence S. "Sully" Greenwood passed away on August 22, 2009, at his home in Farmington. He was born in Hallowell on April 10, 1918, to Lester Clyde and Nora Shatford Greenwood.

He attended grammar school in Wiscasset. He lived on Mount Washington when his father managed the hotel there. Returning to Farmington, he lived with Chester and Isabel Greenwood through his high school years and graduated from Farmington High School in 1936.

Lawrence was later drafted into the Army and served on the front line in World War II under General George Patton. He was injured and received the Purple Heart. He married Inez Gilman and they had four children. She passed away in 1982. Later he married Dorothy Templeton of Palermo who passed away in 1998.

He then moved back to his home town of Farmington. He was a building contractor in Farmington for many years and he built more than 100 homes in the area including creating the street off Maple Avenue called Sunset Avenue and building all the home there. He and his family lived there for many years.

Lawrence is survived by his sons, Larry G. Greenwood of Old Orchard Beach and Ronald L. Greenwood and his fiancée, Patricia Gordon, of Temple; his daughters, Gayle A. Shardlow and her husband, John, of East Wilton and Loretta G. Dyer and her fiancé, Ralph Davis, of Yarmouth; 11 grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren; one sister-in-law, Ruby Greenwood; and his brother-in-law Boyd Hemen. He was predeceased by a grandson, Russell S. Greenwood; two sisters, Dorothy Deschene and Barbara Hemen; and two brothers, Lester Greenwood and Chester Greenwood II.

Memorial contributions may be made to The Chester Greenwood Parade Fund, c/o Franklin County Chamber of Commerce, 248 Wilton Road, Farmington ME 04938.

GERARD D. RENY

WINSLOW—Gerard D. "Joe" Reny, 88, passed away on August 22, 2009, at Oak Grove Rehabilitation and Living Center in Waterville surrounded by his loving wife and family. Gerard was born in Winslow on February 24, 1921, the son of Oscar and Sadie (Cloutier) Reny.

He grew up on a dairy farm on the Augusta Road with his 10 brothers and sisters. He was educated in Winslow schools. Gerard was a veteran of World War II having served four years in the Army. He was stationed in the European theater.

Gerard married Marie A. Beaudoin on March 2, 1946. They resided in Fairfield Center for many years where together they farmed and operated a market garden. He also owned and operated several service stations in the Waterville area. After retirement, they moved to Lake Wales, Florida, where they resided for 28 years. The couple returned home to Maine in 2005. He enjoyed gardening, woodworking and camping.

Gerard is survived by his loving wife of 63 years, Marie Antoinette and their seven children, Daniel Reny and his wife, June, of East Vassalboro, Ann Wendell and her husband, James, of Farmington, Connecticut, Jean Runge and her husband, Thomas, of Scotts, Michigan, David Reny, of Fairfield, Barbara Robison and her husband, Jerrold, of Gillette, Wyoming, Kenneth Reny and his wife, Lisa, of Grandville, Michigan, and Susan Hood of St. Petersburg, Florida. He is also survived by two brothers, Raymond Reny and his wife, Patricia, of Winslow and Norman Reny and his wife, Barbara, of St. Augustine, Florida, and three sisters, Celine Lemieux of Winslow, Marjorie Couture and her husband, Richard, of St. Augustine, Florida, and Muriel Grenier and her husband, Robert, of Belgrade; many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Gerard was predeceased by three brothers, Leonard, Roland and Fernand Reny and by two sisters, Theresa Ferran and Antoinette Caron.

Arrangements were by Gallant Funeral Home, 10 Elm St., Waterville.

KALLI LYNN DUMONT

OAKLAND—Kalli Lynn Dumont, infant daughter of Scott Maynard Dumont and Brandi Lynn Bouchard, died Tuesday, September 15, 2009, at MaineGeneral Medical Center in Waterville.

Besides her parents, she is survived by her big sister, Taylor Dumont; grandparents Missi and David Blethen, Sam Bouchard and Karla Carey and Pete and Joyce Dumont; great-grandparents Bob and Shirlene Wellman, Bernice and Parker Blethen, Maxine Bouchard, Carlton and Eleanor Brooks, Gloria Dumont and Maynard and Gladys Hewett; great-grandmother Carolyn Alexander; and several aunts and uncles.

Private funeral services will be held at a later date.

LORETTE M. STEEVES

WINSLOW—Lorette M. Steeves, 65, of Winslow, died Wednesday, September 16, 2009, at the Lahey Clinic in Burlington, Massachusetts. She was born in Waterville on October 5, 1943, a daughter of Roland and Lorette (Duguay) Rodrigue.

She was educated in local schools and was a member of Corpus Christi Parish and attended Sacred Heart Church. Lorette loved Beano, puzzles, and playing the lottery. Most of all Lorette enjoyed spending time with her family at family outings and holidays. Her family will remember her fabulous cooking, especially her dynamites, toutiere pies and her fried chicken.

Lorette was predeceased by her parents, a brother Donald, a son-in-law Jeffrey Fitzgerald, a daughter-in-law Tammy Saul and her father-in-law Aurelle Bolduc.

She is survived by her husband, Charles C. Steeves, Jr.; three sons, David Steeves of Fairfield, Gary Steeves and his partner, Carolyn Nickerson, of Fairfield Center and Ernest Steeves and his wife, Tammye, of Oakland; two daughters, Tammy Fortier and her husband, Timothy, of Fairfield Center and Lisa Fitzgerald and her partner, Jon Fortier, of Oakland; three brothers, Fern, Ronald and Gerard Rodrigue; two sisters, Nancy Wing and Ann Morneau; four brothers-in-law, Richard, Douglas and John Steeves and Teddy Bolduc; two sisters-in-law, Linda and Ann Bolduc; 11 grandchildren, several nieces, nephews and cousins and special friends Jean Gauthier and Barbara Spaulding.

Memorial donations may be made to: Lahey Clinic, Attn: Philanthropy Dept., Contribution to ICU Nursing Education Fund, 41 Mall Road, Burlington MA 01805.

ALICE A. COTE

COOPERS MILLS—Alice A. Cote, 98, Main Street and formerly of Longwood Avenue, Augusta, died Saturday, September 19, 2009, at Country Manor Nursing Home following a long illness. She was born in Canada on November 25, 1910, a daughter of the late David and Marie (Pomerleau) Rodrigue.

Mrs. Cote was a communicant of St. Andrews Catholic Church in Augusta.

She had been employed for many years at Bates Mfg. Co., Edwards Division.

Mrs. Cote was predeceased by her husband, Charles E. Cote; a son, Kenneth Cote, and several brothers and sisters.

She is survived by two sons, Donald P. Cote and his wife, Carleen, of Vassalboro and Dana R. Cote of Standish; a sister, Helen Vigue of Fairfield; two grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Those who desire may make donations to the charity of their

Family Owned and Operated
Dan & Scott's
Cremation & Funeral Service
207-474-0000
445 Waterville Road,
Skowhegan, Maine 04976
Dan C. Adams - dan@tdstelme.net
Scott T. Adams - scot@tdstelme.net
Affordable

In Memory of
HEIDI LYNN HANNAN
on her
25th Birthday,
September 24.
Sadly missed and
in our hearts
LOVE YOU, DAD AND NANCY

In loving memory of
HEIDI HANNAN
On September 24, 2009 you would have turned 25 years old. Heidi, we are wishing you a Happy Birthday that should have been your special day.
We think of you more and more everyday Heidi.
*Sadly missed,
Love Nana, Papa Hannan
and Family*

We would like to wish Jessie and Mike Wharton Happy 4th Anniversary as they were married on Heidi's Birthday, 2005. Happy Anniversary Jessie and Mike from the Hannan's.

GALLANT
Funeral Home, Inc.
Waterville's Only
Locally Owned and Operated
Funeral Home
10 Elm St., Waterville,
ME 04901
873-3393
Website: gallantfh.com

choice. Arrangements by Plummer Funeral Home, 16 Pleasant St., Augusta.

Condolences to the family may be expressed via the funeral home Web site www.plummerfh.com.

IRIS K. CLARK

SIDNEY—Iris K. Clark, 85, of Lyons Road, died Wednesday, September 16, 2009, at her home. She was born in Presque Isle on February 11, 1924, the daughter of Fay and Fern (Good) Parks.

Iris was a member of the West River Road Fire Department Ladies Auxiliary. She attended the Second Baptist Church in Sidney, where she was a member of the Ladies Aid. She sang in the church choir at both the Second Baptist Church and the West Sidney Baptist Church. Her interests included gardening, sewing and baking.

She was predeceased by her husband, Francis Clark, in 1973; and a brother, Roland Parks.

She is survived by four daughters, Sylvia Lyon and her husband, David, of Sidney, Ellen Lifa of San Diego, Doreen King of Oakland and Beth Golding of Sidney; a sister, Ruth Gervais of Unity; 10 grandchildren, Scott Lyon, Stephanie Hippler, Michelle Lyon, Donna Robinson, Heather Lifa, Tanya Lifa, Joshua Lifa, Randy King, Amy Shearer and Jeremiah Golding; 13 great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Sidney Rescue Association, 2986 Middle Road, Sidney ME 04330. Please make checks payable to the Town of Sidney.

Condolences to the family may be sent to www.khrfuneralhomes.com.

NAJIBA AZIMI

WINSLOW—Najiba Azimi, M.D., 56, passed away on September 19, 2009, at Mass General Hospital in Boston. A progressive woman with unmatched inner beauty and a golden smile achieved the impossible, gloriously. She has finally found peace after a prolonged battle with gastric cancer.

Beating the odds as an Afghan woman, she valued hard work and education. She studied medicine in the Krimean Medical institute earning an M.D. and specialized in obstetrics gynecology. She was displaced from her homeland of Afghanistan to serve as a doctor in the refugee camps of Pakistan.

Hoping for a better life for her children she arrived in Waterville in 1983. She served as a nursing administrator at Mount St. Joseph Nursing Home to become director of nursing in 2008. Her greatest achievement remains her daughter and three sons along with her four grandchildren.

Loved by all, she is survived by her loving husband, Mohammad Kabir Azimi, her daughter, Shakila Azimi, and three sons Omar, Akhtar and Nassir Azimi, along with her four grandchildren Malalai, Masood and Sana Amini and Mora Azimi.

The family has requested memorial donations be made to American Cancer Society, 1 Bowdoin Mill Island, Suite 300, Topsham ME 04086.

OTHERS DEPARTED

Lorette Derosby, of Sidney, lost her sister, Simone I. Dumont, 95, of Waterville, on Thursday, August 20, 2009, at Oak Grove Nursing Home.

Angela (Fortin) Loftus, of Stratham, New Hampshire, formerly of Waterville, lost her husband, William G. Loftus, 63, of Stratham, also formerly of Waterville, on Saturday, August 22, 2009, at Portsmouth Regional Hospital, following a brief illness. Also, Robert Loftus, of Winslow, lost his brother.

Barbara Moody and husband Robert, of Chelsea, and Patty Moody and husband John, of Windsor, lost Barbara and Patty's mother, Ruth E. Nichols, 86, of Augusta, on Friday, September 11, 2009, at Augusta Rehabilitation Center.

Larry Arnold and wife Carol, of Sidney, lost Larry's father, Walter I. Arnold, 91, of Augusta, on Monday, September 14, 2009, following a brief illness. Also, Paul Arnold and wife Louise lost Paul's brother.

Joyce and Andy Hisler, of Somerville, lost their granddaughter, Jessica N. Fox, 33, of Winthrop, on Tuesday, September 15, 2009, at her home. Also, Bobbie and Kris Waldron, of Winslow, lost their niece.

Trust

in us to provide

- * Services with dignity
- * Staff that is professional, caring and understanding
- * Full range of services from direct cremations to traditional funeral with burial, memorial services, body donation, burial at sea and disinterments
- * Arrangements made worldwide
- * Staff members available for death calls 24 hours

Veterans services are our specialty

Plummer Funeral Home
983 Ridge Road, Windsor 16 Pleasant Street, Augusta
Maine toll free 1-877-622-9311